

Executive Function Holiday Gift Guide

Games and activities are a great way to work on skill development for all children. Below you will find some suggestions of games and activities that will help support the development of a variety of executive function skills.

Games to play with others

- Rush Hour (age 8)
- Popup game (3 years and up)
- Express Your Feelings Memory Match Game (5-12 years)
- Connect Four
- Jenga
- Sorry
- Clue

Activities you can do by yourself

- What should Danny Do? Books (4-7 years)
- Rainbow Fidget Balls (3-12 years)
- Search and Find (36 mo- 6 years)
- Magnetic Tiles (36 months-14 years)
- Sorting and Stacking Toy (12 mo and up)
- Magnetic Blocks (3 year and up)
- Mr. Potato Head (24 months and up)
- Kanoodle (7-11 years)
- Gravity Maze Marble Run (8-15 years)
- Block Stacking Game (age 2-5)
- Tangram Games (3-12)
- See my feelings mirror
- Bullet Journaling (age 8+)
- Stacking Cup game (3 years and up)